Mesa's Message:

Mesa: "Ok so your schedule is supposed to be out today and when you get your schedule, we'll be meeting as a class in fourth period. When it's a block period we'll do a little check in and i'll make meets for each committee. On the first day we'll meet and discuss the first day and rally. On Friday, you'll be meeting with your committees and we'll be helping Kaci and them out. The idea is that on Mondays we'll be meeting together and working on assignments. Wednesday will be cabinet meetings, and Friday you'll be with your committees. I also have the proposed football schedule and Hoco is January 29th. So with that, we need to start, Wyatt, needs to start working with the student senate and we need to think about a theme. Or it's going to be cabinet priming the sets alone because we can't have 130 students be at the school. Once we pick a theme we can paint and store them. When it's daylight savings, we lose an hour so we have to do all the prep before the season changes."

Committee Check Ins:

Senior Director of Recognition:

Jack: "For recognition we have a lot of ideas. For Fine Arts we were thinking of having socsa students submit videos of why they joined sosca. Another thing is to submit pieces of artwork or anything artistic they've done over quarantine. For teacher' recognitions they were thinking of writing an email for them thanking them for all they did. And they're trying to figure out a system for teacher of the week and teacher of the month. For student recognition they were thinking of using the humans of dana instagram to see what people have been doing during corona. Also a rate my set up sorta thing contest which would be funny and we could do other submission things. For athletics, again, reaching out to students and asking what they're doing to stay committed to their sport. And we're going to keep going as time goes on, but my committees keep coming up with more and more ideas."

Mesa: "Are you guys gonna roll these out next tuesday? Everyday next week maybe?"

Jack: "A lot of people in recognition are new people, so it'd be hard. Can you get me the phone numbers?"

Mesa: "Yes i'll give those to you and the rest of the senior directors."

Jack: "I'll give those numbers to the respected commissioners. Also we need to update the humans of dana account too."

KHK:

Joseph Sudam: "For KHK I'm going to be working with the KHK directors to place the students where they're interested. We're going to teach them how to fill out different IRS forms. Their principal hasn't emailed me back, but I suggest we do digital tutoring or Dana Hills students reading books."

Mesa: "I think you should start that digital library youtube so that when we do hear back from the principal, we'll still have that."

Joseph: "Ok that sounds good."

Intramurals:

Regan: "We were thinking of doing an online video."

Aedan: "Yeah whether it be game pigeon or xbox. We could also have in real life game tournaments and we can decide which ones are the best ones to do next week."

Pep:

Kaci: "Ok so the Welcome Back Rally next Friday is going to be streamed at 4pm. We can do a post where it's like you wearing blue and tag the instagram account on your story. Basically just working on promoting things when we get back to school in the second semester. I'm going to extend the agenda for the hosts because I only got four people and Aedan and Wyatt."

Mesa: "Yeah we definitely want some people outside of ASU to be the host."

Kaci: "Also in the rally, I want to get videos from the teachers to put that in. Just to wrap it up, I was watching this CADA webinar and they were talking about how you can live stream a movie and I was thinking about how we can end the rally with a link to the movie."

Aedan: "We can do movies of the week too."

Mesa: "I think that's a great way to connect. You could have a survey where people can choose the movie."

Aedan: "Also you posting a picture watching the movie with friends would be good."

Mesa: "I say we start advertising for that now. Because when we come back it can be like, who has been participating at home. We don't have to do things like we've done. We can start promoting clash right off the back."

Kaci: "And I'm having a zoom meeting with my committee tonight."

Activities:

Val: "It's been hard to reach out because nobody responds. But i've reached out to Owen and he's been talking about doing games and having a Welcome Back Tournament where we give points. I was talking with my committees to see what we do for social media as well. We're going to really start to narrow down things to do."

Mesa: "Do you have something for next week?"

Val: "No, I still need to talk to them."

Mesa: "Maybe between the handful of you, think of one thing to kick off the school year."

Posters:

Caydence: "Yeah sure so since I can't do posters normally, I'm gonna ask Lila if I can do digital posters."

Mesa: "There's a cool app called slide show that you could use."

ICC:

Aakrsh: "So applications, they'll be the same and we'll have them on the podcast. We want applications due on the 11th and once they're submitted, we're going to ask each club to make a short video about that club. People can then choose which clubs they want to join and that information will be given to the presidents."

Mesa: "I suggest starting to advertise now to get kids motivated to join."

Class Presidents:

Olivia (Sophomores): "The only thing I was wondering about was how to get the word out for freshmen."

Mesa: "We can get a graphic and you can work with Lila. I really want one in the podcast so parents can see as well."

Kate (Juniors): "So how we're gonna connect with the juniors is that we think we should have all the teachers promote the instagram accounts to reach out to people. And after that we can do polls on the story for various reasons such as games or advice. Also on a more serious note we can do polls about tutors and if they do we can set up a buddy system for academic help. On the first day of school I'm gonna have all the juniors take a selfie with their desk set up."

Mesa: "I need all of the social media accounts for all the classes so the teachers can start promoting them."

Kate: "And for the freshmen class officers we should get that going instead of putting it on hold. For all those who had your committee zooms please submit the names of kids who might want to run."

Mesa: "Yes let's not postpone that. We'll start promoting that when school starts. We'll have an informational zoom where we show them the instructions for running and do speeches online."

Hailey (Seniors): "We had an idea where we would do kindergarten to senior year pictures on the instagram. We were talking about archiving some pictures and redoing it."

Helena: "We just want to personalize it more to our grade. I feel like we can make it more fun that way and bring it together."

Val: "Can we do a senior sunrise?"

Mesa: "It can't be Dana Hills promoted, but what I was thinking is we can do free I Love Bagels for the seniors on the first day of school."

Helena: "We wouldn't have it with the school, but we were talking about since it starts at the same time we were thinking about doing a sunset type thing at Salt Creek."

Mesa: "If you do that you just can't promote it on the Dana Hills instagram. If you want to start the movement on your own you can."
