Aedan's Analog:

Aedan: "Ok so senior directors, I asked you your goals, but I want to be able to go to your commissioners and hear what they are."

Committee Check Ins:

Student Senate

Wyatt: "Can I get people's schedules because I'm interested in how to get two people from each class."

Mesa: "You can do a youtube video. I think one of the tasks on the agenda is to do something to show we're against racism. I think that should be your focus."

Senior Director of Recognition:

Jack: "For teacher relations they're working on a post for welcoming back the teachers as well as a thank you email for the teachers."

Senior Director of Activities:

Ali: "So for activities I still need to get in touch with Lila for social media to double check it."

Mesa: What are the activities you're planning

Ali: "For every Friday we're gonna keep family Fridays and since we can't be in person we want to be united. We figured we could do it where you post something and tag the insta."

Mesa: "It'd be good if you guys did a calendar so that we have an idea of what you have planned for the month."

Athletics:

Ella: "Some people are slow to respond but they're all super excited. We were talking about doing highlight videos for Family Friday to make it like a game night. Makes it so people could reminisce. Just getting people to get more involved in that instagram and when other sports start happening we'll have like each of those types of videos for each sport."

Mesa: "Yeah I like that idea and I can send you the schedule."

Ella: "And since loud crowd is more out there we can include crowd videos to show how it used to be."

Mesa: "Especially for the freshmen and the new kids that'd be great. Also Val community night is the first game at home. Maybe instead of making the first game red white and blue for football maybe you can do boys volleyball or another sport."

Student Relations:

Milaina: "So I had my first meeting with my committee and only two people came and we were talking about events to do on the instagram like rate my set up or first day of school outfit. As well as we want to continue student of the week."

Mesa: "You should start promoting what you want to do for Friday tomorrow."

Fine Arts:

Ella: "So this week we're having a youtube video go up where people in SOSCA are gonna talk about how and when they got involved. And then we're gonna make an instagram where a SOSCA student takes over the account for the week and they can post their performances."

KHK:

Joseph: "So basically early in the summer we were expecting to come back right away so we made plans for events and since we can't do anything in person we're figuring out how to do fundraisers online. We're also figuring out the online library for RH Dana."

Mesa: "You can still do fundraising through restaurants."

Loud Crowd:

Paula: "I don't know what to say, I'm here for Paul."

Mesa: "Do you guys have anything? You can start promoting the twitter account."

Pep:

Kaci: "So yesterday our committee picked out the host and they were also informed they've been chosen, so the rally is Friday at 4. I'm kinda confused about the movie thing mesa."

Mesa: "You know how people put movies on youtube? If you put that link in the chat or at the end of the pep rally video or something it'll take them to the video."

Kaci: "Kanoa, I was wondering what day I needed to get back to you about the videos for the hosts?"

Kanoa: "I assume Mesa wants to review the rally so probably in the next 3 days is when I need it."

Activities:

Val: "Yeah so we were gonna reach out to Lila and use this week to advertise. And for intramurals we're gonna get phone numbers and do like 8-ball."

Owen: "I was also hoping to do online gaming"

Mesa: "I think you definitely should."

Owen: "Right now we're just gonna start with game pigeon. And then I asked Lila for a graphic and we'll post that along with my number."

Mesa: "What if you did a google form?"

Val: "Or we could do a swipe up on the instagram stories."

Mesa: "Maybe you can do a promo video and say like go to the story and sign up or something. Anything else Val?"

Val: "So we started a calendar with things to do Friday. Also we've talked about hoco and I've been talking with the deputies but I wanna talk to more. And we've been talking about the second semester more."

Mesa: "Maybe you can reach out to some of the vendors on the ASU card and ask to promote the businesses on Friday for Family Friday. Just let them know as well."

Technology:

Kanoa: "So I know that Kaci wanted me to make a sports video so I asked D'Mitri and he's gonna look for them. For NSO I'm basically done. I just need to send it over."

Posters:

Caydence: "So the plan is Lila is gonna have a zoom call and my committee is gonna go with her to learn about canva. I've also been looking at different apps."

ICC:

Aakrsh: "So Dr. Baker is including club applications on the Dana website and there's also a graphic. Plus we're having applications due September 12th. Also we were gonna ask each club to create a video and post it on youtube."

Class Presidents:

Olivia (Sophomores): "I was gonna send in something to the weekly message about freshmen running for office."

Hailey (Seniors): "Just like some senior stuff and focusing on the instagram page."
