

Student Voice

Evidence of at-large student participation on student council committees:

The Dana Hills Student Senate is composed of multiple committees where student members are able to participate and voice their opinions. Below is a list of committees with the list of students on that committee for 2018.

Council Committees:

Constitution Committee:

The role of the constitution committee is to overlook and review the current Student Senate Constitution to ensure that all parts of it are all to date with our current legislative processes. Additionally, they can determine if any changes must be implemented anywhere in order to improve our democratic functions or the overall structure of the Senate.

ASU Audit Committee Meeting Agenda (12/10/2018):

Recommendations to ASU: December 10, 2018

- 1) There is not enough diversity; Very exclusive
 - a) Try to take out people who don't participate in events
 - b) Search for different types of people to join ASU, and not just people who fill up criteria
 - c) Accept people who have different ideas and aren't so called "popular"

- d) Different ethnicities
- 2) Incorporate more original ideas EX: not tissue snowfall
- a) incorporate more of the audience
 - b) consult senate before creating event

Beautification Committee:

Each year Student Senate is granted $5,000 to spend on a beautification project for the school. The job of the committee will be to debate and determine where this spending is needed the most (it does not all have to be spent in the same place).
